A vote for me is a vote for change. I support a review of the out-dated Constitution; better communication and engagement from our Runanganui; greater transparency about how our money is spent and tangible benefits to being Ngati Porou for our tamariki and mokopuna.

I will bring 30 years of journalism, communication and management experience to the TRONPnui Board. I was a television journalist for TVNZ, lived and worked in the United States for almost 10 years, was briefly involved with New Zealand national politics and, most recently, worked in central and local government as a senior communication, digital and marketing manager. I have owned and managed a number of businesses alongside my husband, Beau Taare, and am passionate about bringing whanau together.

Recently my focus has been on our Wellington taurahere. It has undergone a massive revival led by mum and dad, Sir Tamati and Lady Tilly Reedy, along with other dedicated Natis. Beau and I have worked alongside them to re-build our Nati whakawhanaungatanga. So, last year we built a website to keep in touch with everyone, organised one of the best Sir Apirana Ngata Memorial Lectures ever held and in July this year gathered more than 100 Natis together for the taurahere's inaugural Matariki Dinner. Proud to be Nati? You bet!

Vote for me and vote for change on the TRONPnui Board.
