11	It's so hard getting back to the coast so it's awesome to be able to wānanga our own iwi here in Wellington. Would like to have had learnt more about te reo o Ngāti Porou.	9/29/2016 11:15 PM

12	It was my first hui that I attended, and I thoroughly enjoyed it. I was excited to be apart of our Ngati Porou kaupapa, to sit with the other many naati that attended, to celebrate our Iwi, Hapu, Marae & whanau. to also hear & be updated on what our representatives for the Runanga are trying to achieve with regards to the review of the Trust Deed, sharing their information & knowledge with us, and being open with us and allowing us to have our korero. enjoyed the te reo session with Uncle Tamati & Aunty Tilly, going over the past/present/future sentence structures in a very ngawari environment. look forward to learning more about our ngati porou reo, kiwaha etc	9/29/2016 8:59 PM
13	Didn't attend - I live in Turanganui-A-Kiwa	9/29/2016 7:44 PM
14	I came alone to this wananga being the only person in my whanau and extended whanau who is pursuing kaupapa Māori. Unfortunately I don't have my grandparents here anymore to guide me in this journey but I'm passionate about connecting with my identity for my children and future generations. I'm also very passionate about the reo. I loved all aspects of this Wananga and look forward to more. I went home fizzing telling my whanau about it. Next time I'm sure I can get some of them to come along with me. It was an absolute honour to listen to Papa Tamati Reedy and Koka Tilly speak so passionately and yet so humbly about the gift that is our reo. (I used a lot of Sir Tamati's research last year when researching my own whakapapa roots so I was very grateful to be there in his presence)	9/29/2016 7:35 PM
15	Was good to see everyone and make connections.	9/29/2016 6:37 PM
16	He tuku mihi tenei ki a koutou nga Kaiwhakarite e pikau ana te kaupapa nei. (you are doing a fantastic job). E te rangatira a Uncle Tamati korua ko to hoa rangatira a Koka Tilly i tohaina ki a matou o korua mōhiotanga, mātauranga māramatanga hoki. You are both so inspiring and we here living in Te Whanganui a Tara are so privileged to be able to sit in your presence and be receiving of your knowledge and experiences. (Tino rawe rawa atu)!!!! I thoroughly enjoyed the whole day. Te Reo was delivered in a very professional yet relaxed way and left me wanting more. It was inspiring to hear and now know that the birthing of Te Whariki emerged from to two great minds who are mokopuna a Porourangi - Tau ke!!! I sat in awe of it all.	9/29/2016 12:56 PM
17	Cant beat being amongst our people celebrating who we are!	9/29/2016 11:34 AM
18	This was a first for me and I enjoyed the whole day. It was structured to capture a bit of everything but importantly to connnect with whanau. The presenters were amazing with lots of humour and this is following through at the waiata practices. Fantastic stuff.	9/29/2016 11:32 AM
19	I didn't attend due to another commitment but I would of loved all of the above	9/29/2016 10:07 AM
20	I know I am from Ngāti Porou and acknowledge that in everything I do but I haven't got a close connection to the places I affiliate too or know too many whānau. My dad passed away when I was 11yrs old and my dad's whānau were/are based in Wellington so it meant we didn't go back much at all growing up. It was so good to be around other whānau and to make those connections.	9/29/2016 9:52 AM
21	Fabulous hui! Lets have more	9/29/2016 9:42 AM
22	I was enlightened, engaged and eager to learn more, I feel one day wananga was not enough for me. I would like to have another day if possible.	9/29/2016 8:55 AM
23	Te Reo: Im still learning and just those little tenses helped me alot. The kupu "Ai" was interesting and will read up on it. The references provided are excellent benchmarks to go and research. Haka's: If we could split up into groups to learn certain waiata and learn it well that would be good and also the meaning behind the waiata sung. That way more emphasis would be put into singing the waiata. Some of the waiata did not have actions, are there actions if so that would be good to learn as well. Te Whariki: This one topped it for me for the day: This model could fit anywhere in any Government Agency not only the Kohanga Trust. It was so inspiring and uplifting gee I left feeling so valued:) Nga mihi ki a korua e Ta Tamati raua ko Koka Tilly ka rawe!! Whakawhanaungatanga: Awesome to see the cuzzy's and meet new cuzzy's and ones I use to call uncle out of respect and he is my uncle (hehehe) that's a crack up:)) Reconnecting: When my mum passed away when I was little, we never went back to the coast, we know our dads side real well.	9/29/2016 8:27 AM
24	Great information from outstanding exponents of Ngati Porou reo. Exactly what is needed for those of us who know very little. Thank you.	9/29/2016 7:51 AM
25	All the above as it gave me continued reconnection and with Awareness building on things I hadn't really given thought about	9/29/2016 7:48 AM
26	I am so pleased I attended. Every kaupapa was beautifully presented, informative and articulated so that all could understand.	9/29/2016 7:45 AM
27	Amazing wananga! We are so privileged to have Sir Tamati and Lady Tilly share their knowledge and expertise on Ngati Porou reo. Thank you for your commitment to Ngati Porou, to te reo, early childhood education and for just being there.	9/28/2016 10:56 PM

7	Def keen to learn more about Ngati Porou specific dialect/Reo. Be good to have full 30min Kapa session.	9/29/2016 6:37 PM
8	What is being delivered is relevant and of consequence to Ngati Porou ki Poneke and should not be dismissed. From a standpoint of view, whakapapa, whakapapa korero, te reo me ona tikanga, always ignites the burning desire within and can be delivered in a number of ways. For instance, Moteatea contains whakapapa, whakapapa korero, hītori and in terms of Te Reo, discussing the use of metaphoric language and literary devices used within the mōteatea would be an awesome reo lesson in itself. Perhaps an idea would be to have options available for those who want Te Reo Okawa and Te Reo Opaki (Ngati Stylez of course). I think learning various mōteatea mai Ngati Porou is a must and it would be lovely to see this implemented. I totally agree with uncle Tamati, that it would be awesome to hear different kaupapa being delivered from various whanau (Ataahua) and I'm sure there are many within our whanau who would be willing to share their mōhiotanga, mātauranga and māramatanga. The elements imbedded within the core practices of kapa haka or Maori Performing arts is another kaupapa that should be brought into our environment of knowing. Ngati Porou has made a significant contribution to the preservation and continuation of this art form and listening to korero from various practitioners would be awesome.	9/29/2016 12:56 PM
9	I would particularly like to learn more on Te Reo ake o Ngati Porou. What words, phrases, expressions make our dialect unique...	9/29/2016 11:34 AM
10	kupu mai i Ngati Porou	9/29/2016 10:07 AM
11	Whakapapa	9/29/2016 9:52 AM
12	I feel that one day was a tease because when it came to whakapapa we only had an opportunity to touch on the kaupapa and I would love to recite how by bloodline came directly from Porourangi. What a priviledge that would be.	9/29/2016 8:55 AM
13	All the above, its so new to me and so inspirational. for the open discussion, just an idea to split up into our groups etc..marae and provide feedback on what we thought about the wananga, we in our groups could present it together:)	9/29/2016 8:27 AM
14	It was all so interesting I'd be happy to hear more about it all.	9/29/2016 7:51 AM
15	Have a theme for open discussion hui	9/29/2016 7:48 AM

1	I agree with all of the above. the struggle is getting our whanau involved and helping the whanau to understand these statements. how can we convince the whanau (currently not attending) this is the road to recovery? all the above are very good reasons for ngati porou whānau whānui to be on board this kaupapa But I believe majority do not understand the value it will have in the future. kōhanga reo parents are just the beginning. low income whanau think they haven't got the time or $ to participate. what good will the reo do? are questions whanau ask all the time. if they have nothing to do with kohanga reo then they don't know or just don't care. how do we get them interested? na, hine	10/5/2016 4:17 PM
2	No use having lots of Ngati Porou speakers and none on the marae at home. You can be as a good a reo speaker as you like. If you kaenga is empty mōmōu taima.	10/5/2016 9:59 AM

3	Kei te hoki kē aku mahara ki nga korero a nanny Mereana Fox ki etahi ō aku whanaunga i wehe mai te Kiekie ki te rapu mahi 1950s, e rua tau noa iho pea te ngaro atu ki nga taone hoki rawa mai hei ta te kua kua say say kē mai. Ae he tika ki te korero tataua e whakamahi i te reo ka haua te arero ka tapepe te reo. Korerotia te reo i nga wa katoa!!!	10/4/2016 1:21 AM
4	Absolutely	10/1/2016 10:49 AM
5	Exposes us (who haven't grown up on the coast) to our own mita.	9/30/2016 3:47 PM
6	Provides a platform to practice our reo; some people have no one fluent to converse with	9/29/2016 7:44 PM
7	All of the above! I attended one of the hui Whakarauora Reo. It would be great for whanau to listen to some statistics around the status of our reo from Ngāti Porou and then be exposed to some second language learners/ speakers who are in the trenches now trying to revitalise our reo within our own whanau. One of the activities we done was to co construct a strategy of how we might implement this when we go home and back to our whanau. It was quite a valuable task to do and reflect on the status of the reo even within our own immediate whanau and analyzing who are the reo speakers amongst our generation and the generations below, then what can we do about it?	9/29/2016 7:35 PM
8	All of the above apply. Nga mihi	9/29/2016 12:56 PM
9	All are relevant	9/29/2016 8:55 AM
10	All the above from the Ngakau:)	9/29/2016 8:27 AM

8	I'm interested in ANYTHING Maori, but I know there are others who only want the reo, and are not interested in learning waiata or tikanga etc	9/29/2016 7:44 PM
9	I would also be interested in how we can access some putea for our tamariki who are living out of the kāinga for educational purposes. I see a whole group of rangatahi have just travelled over to the States to look at Google and another organisation. Most of those tamariki are from Kura up the coast. What avenues are available for our tamariki who are not connected to the kāinga but identify as Ngāti Porou nonetheless? Also just more regular opportunities to learn the reo- weekly classes, weekend noho that would be awesome ;)	9/29/2016 7:35 PM
10	refer to previous feedback. The Karanga would be awesome.	9/29/2016 12:56 PM
11	I'm keen to learn how the kaikorero and kaikaranga roles work with/support each other.	9/29/2016 11:32 AM
12	The Wisdom & Journey of our Elders (living) These elders are our living Taonga whom we revere & treasure !! We would love to learn their journey and insightful knowledge .	9/29/2016 9:03 AM
13	I wasn't sure if the whaikorero kaupapa was relevant to me but then thought, its important to learn how Ngati Porou conduct their whaikorero and this will help my son in his growth as a Tane Māori.	9/29/2016 8:55 AM
14	That Te Runanganui O Ngati Porou have a monthly presence to the Taurahere to inform us what is going on back home rather than going on the web page because as we know there aligns alot of korero beneath wording.	9/29/2016 8:27 AM

3	I was talking to some Nāti who went to the wananga who didn't know the tikanga of their own marae. For lots of reasons, they couldn't make it back home and were embarrassed to admit it. I thought maybe if we held a wananga about the tikanga of our marae, that might be of some interest. He whakaaro noa iho. 23	Thoroughly enjoyable wananga. Lots of excellent information shared about the reo and here's hoping the amazing Te Whariki model finds its rightful place supporting our children and mokopuna through the tricky NZ education system. Perhaps it's time for Te Whariki to become a model for Life, not just for our children. Well done Taurahere. Thank you for organising this wananga.	9/29/2016 7:51 AM
